

Provider Resources

You're supporting our members. We want to support you.

Along with simplifying processes and prior authorizations, our new Child Welfare Program is also supporting providers involved in child welfare by sharing resources like these. We want to help you stay on top of the latest treatment resources, so we have compiled a list of training and development programs that can improve members' health outcomes.

Child Welfare League of America

CWLA is a training and advocacy organization that helps train providers, communities, and caregivers to better serve children who many have experienced abuse, neglect, family disruption, and other negative factors.

More information: www.cwla.org

Call: 202-688-4200

Email: cwla@cwla.org

Family and Children's Resource Program

The Family and Children's Resource Program offers educational resources, training, coaching, and organizational consultation to help providers better serve families involved in the child welfare system.

More information: fcrp.unc.edu

Contact: fcrp.unc.edu/contact

National Center for Innovation and Excellence: Wraparound

The National Center for Innovation and Excellence provides training and certification for a support model called Wraparound. Wraparound is a team-based planning process that brings families, providers, and families' social support network together to create a customized plan of care.

More information:

www.ncfie.org/our-expertise/wraparound

Call: 321-419-1082

National Council for Behavioral Health

The National Council for Behavioral Health provides training and consulting services for mental health professionals and providers. It combines training with implementation science and change management strategies to ensure sustainable culture change.

More information:

www.thenationalcouncil.org/consulting-services/trauma-informed-resilience-oriented-care

Prevention Services

This resource offers an objective and transparent review of research on programs and services intended to provide enhanced support to children and families and prevent foster care placements.

More information:

www.preventionservices.abtsites.com/program

Email: preventionservices@abtassoc.com